Chairman's Communique . . .

Dear professional friends,

July is known to keep all of us very busy, irrespective of whether we are in practice or in industry. Members in Practice will be busy with filing of Income Tax returns & members in Industry will be busy in the finalisation of Quarterly Accounts as they need to report to the public and various stake holders.

The month that was - June 2016.

Apart from the regular study circle meets, Tax clinics on DT & IDT and Intensive workshop on International Taxation, we conducted many note-worthy programmes.

An awareness programme on Income Declaration Scheme followed by an interactive session with the Commissioners of Income Tax Department - Mr. Naresh Saka, IRS, Additional Commissioner and his team, along with CA. Naveen Khariwal G, our resource person, was beneficial to the participants. As the topic is a sought after one, there was an overwhelming response.

One day seminar on Companies Act 2013 was also very well received by the participants. We also had a Two days residential refresher seminar at Hampi, where the participants thoroughly enjoyed and had a rich learning experience as well.

International Yoga Day was celebrated on 21st June in association with M/s Isha Foundation which helped the participants in harmonizing inner selves with the world and bringing forth peace.

For the first time, we conducted Study Circle Meet at Central Bangalore in Karnataka State Hockey Association which was also well received by the nearby members.

GST being the hot topic of the season, the Discussion on Draft GST law - 2016 by Dr. B V Muralikrishna & CA. S Venkataramani was a tremendous success attended by over 250 participants.

The Month ahead- July 2016.

The moment we think of July, the first & foremost event comes to our mind is 1st July CA day. We celebrated CA day in a befitting manner. We conducted a few activities to commemorate CA day -

- As a Go-green initiative, we planted 1001 saplings keeping in mind the need of the hour - environmental protection - in Kanakapura Road.
- 11 senior members were felicitated for their outstanding service to the profession.
- Prize distributed to the winners of various sports activities held for members and students on CA day.

IMPLEMENTATION OF IND AS – FURTHER RELAXATIONS

CA Mohan R Lavi

As per the roadmap issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs(MCA), the first set of entities to transition to Ind AS in India were to present their financial statements for the quarter ended 30th June 2016 in Ind AS with comparatives for the year ended 30th June 2015. Through its Circular No CIR/CFD/FAC/62/2016 dated July 5th, 2016, the Securities and Exchange Board of India(SEBI) has relaxed the formats and the implementation guidelines.

1. Formats

The existing formats prescribed in SEBI Circular dated November 30, 2015 for Unaudited/Audited quarterly financial results i.e. Statement of Profit and Loss and the Unaudited/Audited Half-Yearly Balance Sheet to be submitted by the listed entities, with the stock exchanges, shall continue till the period ending December 31, 2016.

For the period ending on or after March 31, 2017, the formats for Unaudited/ Audited quarterly financial results i.e. Statement of Profit and Loss and the Unaudited/Audited Half-Yearly Balance Sheet to be submitted by the Listed Entities, with the stock exchanges, shall be as per the formats for Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss (excluding notes and detailed sub-classification) as prescribed in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. However, Banking Companies and Insurance Companies shall follow the formats as prescribed under the respective Acts/Regulations as specified by their Regulators.

Until Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 ('Ind-AS Rules') become applicable, the listed entities shall adopt Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 ('AS Rules') as prescribed by the MCA.

The Quarterly / Annual Segment Information published in compliance with the requirements as prescribed under Accounting Standard ('AS') 17/ Indian Accounting Standard ('Ind AS') 108 of the AS Rules/ Ind-AS Rules, as applicable, shall contain the following minimum information: -

- (a) Segment Revenue (including inter-segment revenue);
- (b) Segment Results;
- (c) Segment Assets;
- (d) Segment Liabilities.

Unallocated items, wherever applicable, shall be shown separately in respect of the above information. Aggregate inter-segment revenue shall be shown as a deduction from the segment revenue.

While publishing the aforementioned financial results, the listed entities shall disclose the figures relating to the periods as mentioned in the respective annexures to the circular dated November 30, 2015.

2. Implementation of Ind-AS during the first year:

As mentioned in para 5 of the circular dated November 30, 2015, the comparatives filed along with the quarterly / annual financial results are required to be Ind-AS compliant. However, in order to facilitate smooth transition during the first year of Ind-AS implementation, the following relaxations are being given to the listed entities to which Ind-AS Rules are applicable from the accounting period beginning on or after April, 1, 2016:

For the quarter ending June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016:

- (i) The timeline for submitting the financial results in compliance with the provisions of this Circular is extended by one month. The results for the quarter ending June 30, 2016 and September 30, 2016 may be submitted by September 14, 2016 and December 14, 2016 respectively.
- (ii) For the quarter ending June 30, 2016, Ind-AS compliant financial results for the corresponding quarter ended June 30, 2015 shall be provided. For the quarter ending September 30, 2016, Ind-AS compliant financial results for the corresponding year to date / quarter ended September 30, 2015 shall be provided. However, in such cases, limited review or audit of the same is not mandatory.

- (iii) For the quarter ending June 30, 2016, submission of Ind-AS compliant financial results for the preceding quarter and previous year ended March 31, 2016 is not mandatory. For the quarter ending September 30, 2016, submission of Ind-AS compliant financial results and Balance Sheet for the previous year ended March 31, 2016 is not mandatory. However, in case the entities intend to submit these results, the same may be without limited review or audit.
- (iv) In such cases, the listed entities shall disclose with due prominence that the Ind-AS compliant financial results, pertaining to the relevant periods of the previous year as mentioned in (ii) and (iii) above, as applicable, have not been subjected to limited review or audit. However, the management has exercised necessary due diligence to ensure that the financial results provide a true and fair view of its affairs.
- (v) The format of Balance Sheet for the Half-Yearly ended September 30, 2016 shall be as per the format for Balance Sheet (excluding notes and detailed sub-classifications) as prescribed in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013.

For the quarter ending December 31, 2016:

- (i) The submission of Ind-AS compliant financial results for the previous year ended March 31, 2016 is not mandatory.
- (ii) In case a listed entity chooses to provide Ind-AS comparatives for the period mentioned above to facilitate comparison, the same shall be subjected to limited review or audit.

For all the aforementioned three quarters, disclosure of the line item - Reserves(excluding Revaluation Reserves), as per Balance sheet of the previous accounting year ended March 31, 2016, as prescribed in the existing formats for quarterly financial results is not mandatory.

In case the listed entity has subsidiaries / Joint Ventures / Associates, the entity may exercise the option under Regulation 33(3)(b)(i) of the Listing Regulations to submit quarterly/year-to-date consolidated financial results in the second quarter instead of the first quarter of the financial year and this option shall not be changed during the remaining part of the financial year.

For listed entities to which Ind AS Rules are applicable in subsequent phases (beginning from the Financial Year 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20), the relaxations as mentioned in para 2.6 above shall mutatis-mutandis apply during their corresponding first year of Ind-AS implementation.

3. Clarifications on issues with regard to Ind-AS implementation:

The listed entities in order to comply with the requirements of paragraph 32 of Ind AS 101 – First time Adoption of Ind AS, shall provide a reconciliation of its equity and net profit / loss, in the following manner, for enabling the investors to understand the material adjustments to the Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss on account of transition from the previous Indian GAAP to Ind-AS:

- (i) Reconciliation of its equity for the previous year ended March 31, 2016, shall be provided while submitting the Audited Yearly Balance Sheet for the period ended March 31, 2017.

Reconciliation of its equity for the previous year ended March 31, 2016, shall be provided in case the listed entity intends to provide the same while submitting the Unaudited/Audited Ind-AS compliant Half-Yearly Balance Sheet for the period ended September 30, 2016.

- (ii) Reconciliation of its net profit / loss as mentioned in the Unaudited/ Audited quarterly financial results shall be provided only for the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

A listed entity may historically have a year-end other than 31st day of March, and may now be required to prepare financial statements for a period longer or shorter than the normal 12 month period for coinciding with 31st day of March as prescribed under Section 2 (41) of the Companies Act, 2013. In such cases, the Ind-AS financial statements for various periods beginning from April 01, 2016, shall have comparative information for a shorter or longer period i.e. beginning from a date other than 1st of April 2015. The listed entity, in such cases, shall disclose a suitable note, with due prominence, that comparative amounts presented in the Quarterly / Half-yearly / Year to date / Annual financial results are not entirely comparable. (Contd. in page 12)

LEVY OF SERVICE TAX ON REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT

CA. N.R. Badrinath, B.Com, Grad CWA, FCA & CA. Madhur Harlalka, B.Com, FCA, LL.B

The Honorable High Court of Delhi in its verdict on 03.06.2016 has upheld the legislative competence of the Parliament to levy service tax on the set of activities carried on by the builder on behalf of the buyer. However, it has observed that in the absence of statutory provisions in the Act and the rules thereunder to ascertain the value of services involved in construction of a complex where the contract for construction and sale of residential unit is a 'single composite agreement', the levy fails and therefore no Service tax can be imposed.

Facts:

- The Petitioners had entered into composite agreements (land and building) with the Builder to buy flats in a multi-storey group Housing project.
- The Builder in addition to the consideration for the flats also recovered service tax from the Petitioners, which is payable by him for services in relation:
 - to construction of complex; and
 - on preferential location charges.
- The Petitioner contended that the agreement with the Builder was a composite contract for purchase of immovable property and in the absence of specific provisions for ascertaining the service component of the said agreement, the levy would be beyond the Legislative competence of the Parliament and preferred writ petition before the Honorable High Court of Delhi.

Decision:

The Honorable High Court of Delhi in its verdict upheld the legislative competence of the Parliament to levy service tax on the set of activities carried on by the builder on behalf of the buyer. However, the Honorable Court clarified that in case of a composite contract which involves not only the element of service but also goods and immovable property, the levy itself would fail, if the statutory provisions in the Act and the Rules thereunder do not provide the machinery to ascertain the value of services involved in construction of a complex and therefore, no Service tax can be imposed.

The object of the Legislature to impose service tax in relation to a construction of a complex is essentially to tax the aspect of services involved in construction of complex the benefit of which is available to a prospective buyer who enters into an arrangement – for acquiring a unit in a project prior to its completion / development. However, service tax cannot be levied on the value of undivided share of land acquired by the buyer of a dwelling unit or on the value of goods which are incorporated in the project by the builder.

It has acknowledged the partial exemption provided by the Central Government – viz., that the exemption of 70% / 75% (as may be applicable) of the total contract value (including the value of land) is towards the value of land and the goods involved therein and that the balance of 30% / 25% (as applicable) represents the element of services in the contract. However, the High Court has been critical on the aspect that such provisions should essentially come out of the law and not through notifications or circulars.

Apropos the judgement, the following are important to note:

1. The judgement is in respect to the provisions as it stood prior to 01.07.2012, viz., before the shift to negative list based taxation. The judgement has not examined the taxability or valuation of works contract service.
2. Specifically in respect of cases where the contract for construction and sale of residential unit is a 'single composite agreement' comprising of UDI in land and construction portion.

From a developer's perspective where contract for construction and sale of residential unit is a 'single composite agreement', the following aspects may be considered in the decision making process.

1. High Court ruling applicable only to single consolidated contracts: In the present case, the contract is a composite contract for sale of residential unit as a whole, viz., a single consolidated contract for sale of UDI in land together with construction.
2. Taxability of construction contract is already upheld: Various High Courts including the Delhi High Court have already upheld the validity of levy of Service tax on such contracts. Once the levy is established and upheld, the computation becomes a mere machinery or an administrative provision.
3. CENVAT credits will not be eligible if such contracts are considered as non-taxable: From a CENVAT credit perspective, it must be noted that where the output is not considered as taxable, no CENVAT credits can be claimed. Applying this to the instant case, it follows that if the judgement of the Delhi High Court is considered, the developers will not be eligible to claim any CENVAT credits.
4. Refund would be subject to unjust enrichment: In most cases, the developers would have collected taxes from the customers and would have remitted the same after utilizing CENVAT credits. Even in cases where the taxes have not been collected from the customers, the tax office would allege that sale price is inclusive of the tax component.

In this backdrop, it is just that no refund would be granted since it would tantamount to 'unjust enrichment'. Procedurally, such amounts would be forfeited and would be transferred to the 'consumer welfare fund' of the Central Government – no refund would be granted to the developers.

However, the customers may make an application for refund of such taxes, to the extent it relates to their respective units.

In case of any technical difficulty in the interpretation of any specific item in the formats or implementation of this circular while publishing the financial results, the listed entities shall be guided by the relevant provisions of the Ind-AS

Rules / AS Rules and Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 and may make suitable modifications, as applicable. The listed entities shall also provide suitable explanations and clarifications, wherever felt necessary.

Critique

Though entities would welcome the relaxation provided, the relaxations are needless. Companies had enough and more time to implement Ind AS and companies in the first set have the Balance Sheet strength and resources to transition to Ind AS. Providing such relaxations in the last minute gives room to interpret that we can expect many more such relaxations in the future.

TAX UPDATES - JUNE 2016

CA Chythanya K.K., B.com, FCA, L.L.B., Advocate

VAT, CST, ENTRY TAX, PROFESSIONAL TAX

PARTS DIGESTED:

- a) 90 VST – Part 2 to 4
- b) 91 VST – Part 1 & 4
- c) 84 KLJ - Part 4

Reference/ Description

[2016] 91 VST 18 (P&H – HC): State of Punjab and Olam Agro India Ltd.

- In the instant case the Commercial Tax Department had put the list of assessment cases in which the time-limit to be extended on the website of the Department for inviting the objections from the dealers/taxable persons to be effected by such extension.

The Honourable Punjab & Haryana High Court observing Rule 86 of the Punjab Value Added Tax Rules, 2005 held the said Rule 86 does not envisage service of general notice or by publication on the website of the Department.

Thus, the Court held that failure of the Department to serve individual notices in an incurable defect, which renders assessment orders null and void.

[2016] 91 VST 385 (Bom. – HC): Johnson Matthey Chemicals India Pvt. Ltd. v. State of Maharashtra & Others - In the instant case the Honourable Bombay High Court relying on the decision of the Honourable Supreme Court in the case of Ambica Steels Ltd. [2009] 24 VST 356 (SC), held that if some States are not issuing F Form, then, that approach of a particular State should be brought to the notice of the assessing office in a dealer's State. The Assessing Officer should be convinced that the dealer made all efforts, but for no fault of his, he could not obtain the F form.

Thereupon and pursuant to the liberty given by the Honourable Supreme Court and the dealer raising the plea, the Assessing Officer, while taking note of it, would consider the peculiar facts and circumstances and may pass requisite orders. Even that is not the rule but an exception.

2016 (85) KLJ 1 (Karn. – HC): Sonal Apparel Pvt. Ltd. and others v. State of Karnataka and another

- In the instant case the Honourable Karnataka High Court held that newly substituted provision to Section 10(3) of the Karvat Act is clarificatory and hence retrospective in nature.

2016 (85) KLJ 53 (Karn. – HC) (DB): Hicure Pharmaceuticals Pvt. Ltd. v. Dy. CIT

- In the instant case the Honourable Karnataka High Court held that 'water for injection' (WFI)/Demineralized Water" (DM) does not fall under Entry 54 of the Third Schedule and hence liable to tax.

Thus, the Court held that contract executed by the Assessee to supply WFI/DM water which is an input for the manufacture of injection, is a composite works contract involving transfer of property in goods as well as labour and service.

While holding so the court held that 'Sale' and 'Service', though different aspects may be involved in the single transaction, under different legislative powers, levy of tax on both aspects is legally permissible. State is empowered to levy tax on the sale or purchase of goods bifurcating the contract and Central is empowered to levy tax on the service.

2016 (85) KLJ (Karn. – Tri)(DB): SAP India Private Ltd. v. State of Karnataka

- In the instant case the Honourable Karnataka Appellate Tribunal held that software patches and upgrades directly dispatched from SAP AG, Germany to customers in India is a sale in the course of import falling under Section 5(2) of the CST Act and thus exempt from tax.

[2016] 68 taxmann.com 93 (Mad. – HC); [2016] 238 Taxman Part 5 (Weekly Browser): Regen Infrastructure & Services (P.) Ltd. v. CBDT - In the instant case the Honourable Madras High Court has held that where delay of a day in filing return was only due to technical snags of website of department on last date of filing return, such delay was to be condoned and hence claim of carry forward of losses could not be denied.

[2016] 68 taxmann.com 131 (Delhi – HC); [2016] 238 Taxman Part 5 (Weekly Browser): Vijay Gupta v. CIT - In the instant the Honourable Delhi High Court held that intimation under Section 143(1) of the IT Act is regarded as an order for purposes of Section 264 and therefore, application under Section 264 is maintainable against intimation order passed under Section 143(1).

[2016] 68 taxmann.com 177 (Cal. – HC); [2016] 238 Taxman Part 6 (Weekly Browser): Shrimati Roma Sengupta v. CIT - In the instant case the Honourable Calcutta High Court held that amount realised by assessee from sale of property received as alimony from her husband in terms of decree of divorce, was to be regarded as capital receipt not liable to tax.

[2016] 239 Taxman 428 (Bom. – HC); [2016] 69 taxmann.com 187 (Bom. – HC): CIT v. Reuters India (P.) Ltd. - In the instant case the Honourable Bombay High Court held that entire purpose of determining the ALP is to ensure that there is no Base Erosion and Profit Shifting. The tax proceedings are not adversarial in nature and there can be no estoppels in pointing out the correct facts before the Appellate Authority particularly when all facts are on record.

Therefore, assessee is permitted to raise issues in appeal even if he had acquiesced with the same during inferior proceedings.

[2016] 239 Taxman 257 (SC); [2016] 69 taxmann.com 188 (SC): P.G. & W. Sawoo (P.) Ltd. v. Asst. CIT - In the instant case Assessee let out its premises to Government of India. Rent for said premises was enhanced in year 1994 retrospectively from previous year in question i.e. AY 1989-1990.

The Assessing Officer issued notice for reassessment to impose tax on said retrospective receipt of rent.

On appeal before the Honourable Supreme Court, the Court held that on facts, it is clear that no right to receive rent accrued to assessee at any point of time during previous year in question, inasmuch as such enhancement though with retrospective effect, was made only in year 1994 and, therefore, notice seeking to reopen assessment was not justified.

While holding so the Court held that income chargeable to tax must accrue or arise at any point of time during previous year; income can be said to have accrued or arisen only when a right to receive amount is vested in assessee.

[2016] 383 ITR 165 (Mad. – HC): K.R. Ganesh Kumar - In the instant case the Honourable Madras High Court held that Section 40A(3) of the IT Act applies to cash purchases found as a result of search even when the undisclosed income is offered on peak credit basis

[2016] 384 ITR 37 (SC): Visvesvaraya Technological University v. Asst. CIT - In the instant case, during a short period of a decade, i.e., from the years 1999 to 2010 the assessee-University had generated a surplus of about Rs.

500 crores by realizing fees under different heads in consonance with the powers vested in the University under Section 23 of the VTU Act

The Honourable Supreme Court observed that during six assessment years in question grants/direct financing by Government had never exceeded 1 per cent of total receipts of assessee-University.

Therefore, the Court held that, assessee could not be considered as directly or even substantially financed by Government so as to be entitled to exemption from payment of tax under section 10(23C)(iiiab).

[2016] 384 ITR 276 (Delhi); [2016] 69 taxmann.com 205 (Delhi): CIT v. Herbalife International India (P.) Ltd - In the instant case, Assessee paid administrative fee to its US-AE for availing various services like data processing, accounting etc. The Assessing Officer disallowed said payment for want of deduction of TDS invoking Section 40(ai) of the IT Act.

On appeal before the Honourable Delhi High Court, the Court observed that under section 40(a)(i), payment made to non-resident without deducting TDS was not allowed as deduction however, such disallowance was not envisaged for payment made to a resident. Further, it observed that under Article 26(3) of the Indo-US DTAA (Non-discrimination), kinds of payments specified in Article 26(3), requires treatment in the same manner vis-a-vis a resident and a non-resident, which includes interest, royalty and other disbursements.

Therefore, the Court held that in view of Article 26(3) of the Indo-US DTAA, Section 40(a)(i) would not be applicable as it created discrimination between payment made to a non-resident and a resident. Thus, the Court held that the action of Assessing Officer was not justified.

TS-85-SC-2016: CIT v. Society for the Promotion of Education, Adventure Sport & Conservation of Environment - In the instant case the Honourable Supreme Court held that non-disposal of registration application within 6 months timeline as stipulated u/s 12AA(2) shall result in "deemed grant of registration".

Thus, the Court held in the instant case as the application was made on 24.02.2003, the deemed grant of registration shall take effect from 24.08.2003.

[2016] 68 taxmann.com 113 (Mum. – Trib.); [2016] 238 Taxman Part 4 (Weekly Browser): Siemens Nixdorf Informations Systeme GmbH v. Dy. DIT (International Taxation) - In the instant case the Honourable Mumbai Tribunal held that an advance/debt or recoverable amount given by Assessee, a non-resident company to its wholly owned subsidiary in India is a property in the sense it is an interest which a person can hold and enjoy, and since it is a property and it is not covered by the exclusion clauses set out in Section 2(14) of the IT Act, it is required to be treated as a 'capital asset'. Further where assessee sold its debt and claimed short term capital loss on this transaction of sale of book debt, since it was sold for an amount lesser than cost at which it was acquired, the loss to be allowed would be short term capital loss.

[2016] 68 taxmann.com 322 (Delhi – Trib.); [2016] 238 Taxman Part 6 (Weekly Browser): Ranbaxy

Laboratories Ltd. v. Asst. CIT - In the instant case the Honourable Delhi Tribunal held that provisions for comparability analysis in Advance Pricing Agreement (APA) have immense persuasive value and can be 'rolled back' i.e. retrospectively applied for past years also even though when the APA signed by the assessee there were no 'rollback provisions'. This can be done provided the international transaction in both the years (i.e. the year of APA and the past year) are the same and availability of data for the past year is also on similar lines as suggested in the APA.

[2016] 69 taxmann.com 31 (Chennai – Trib.); [2016] 239 Taxman Part 2 (Weekly Browser): Vijayshanthi Builders Ltd. v. Jt. CIT - In the instant case the Honourable Chennai Tribunal held that where assessee-builder incurred interest on funds borrowed for a new project, same was to be allowed as revenue expenditure even though said new project was not commenced as there were no restrictions for assessee to use borrowed funds for other projects.

[2016] 68 taxmann.com 338 (Vishakapatnam – Trib.); [2016] 239 Taxman Part 2 (Weekly Browser): Asst. CIT v. Andhra University - In the instant case the Honourable Vishakapatnam Tribunal held that where assessee paid pension without deducting TDS, interest liability for said default would arise from first day of April of subsequent year as TDS could have been deducted till end of relevant financial year.

[2016] 69 taxmann.com 419 (Mum. – Trib.); [2016] 239 Taxman Part 6 (Weekly Browser): L'Oreal India (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT - In the instant case the Honourable Mumbai Tribunal held that where Indian subsidiary incurred AMP expenses promoting bran owned by French holding company, in absence of an agreement between assessee and said AE to share/reimburse AMP expenditure incurred by the assessee in India, transaction in question would not be an international transaction.

[2016] 70 taxmann.com 69 (Mum. – Trib.); [2016] 239 Taxman Part 7 (Weekly Browser): Asst. CIT v. BSR & Co. - In the instant case the Honourable Mumbai Tribunal held that taxability of sum in hands of recipient on account of a subsequent retrospective amendment cannot expose assessee-payer to an impossible situation of requiring deduction of tax at source on date of payment.

Therefore, the Tribunal held assessee cannot be held to be in default for not deducting tax at source so as to trigger disallowance under Section 40(a)(i) of the IT Act.

[2016] 70 taxmann.com 27 (Chennai – Trib.); [2016] 239 Taxman Part 7 (Weekly Browser): Soundarajan Parthasarathy v. Dy. CIT - In the instant case the Honourable Chennai Tribunal held that where an incentive plan was promoted by holding company of Indian employer company and assessee-employees were residents in India at time of exercise of Stock Appreciation Rights, they were liable to tax in India on same irrespective of fact that they were non-residents during vesting period.

[2016] 69 taxmann.com 400 (Mum. – Trib.); [2016] 239 Taxman Part 7 (Weekly Browser): Manugraph India Ltd. v. Dy. CIT - In the instant case the Honourable Mumbai Tribunal held that where issuance of corporate guarantee by assessee was a tripartite agreement between assessee, its AE and assessee's banker and agreement referred to services which were in nature of shareholder services, said transaction was to be excluded from scope of 'international transaction' under Section 92B of the IT Act.

[2015] 41 ITR (Trib.) 397 (Bang.): Dy. CIT v. WS Atkins India P. Ltd. - In the instant case the Honourable Bengaluru Tribunal held that where assessee simply purchased software delivered along with computer hardware for utilisation in the day-to-day business, assessee was not required to deduct tax at source for the reason that Explanation 2 to Section 9(1)(vi) of the IT Act cannot be applied to purchase of a copyrighted software, which would not involve commercial exploitation.

Thus, the Court held that 40(a)(ia) does not apply and depreciation is allowable under Section 32.

[2016] 157 ITD 1160 (Hyd. – Trib.); [2016] 67 taxmann.com 65 (Hyd. – Trib.): Virtusa (India) (P.) Ltd. v. Dy. CIT - In the instant case the Honourable Hyderabad Tribunal held that where assessee relied on ITR-6 format to arrive at total liability as well as MAT credit calculations, Assessing Officer could not overlook said format and proceed to calculate MAT credit to complete assessment under section 143(1) by applying different methods when the correct method is proposed by CBDT in ITR-6.

[2016] 157 ITD 1177 (Mum. – Trib.); [2016] 67 taxmann.com 368 (Mum. – Trib.): Pramerica ASPF II Cyprus Holding Ltd. v. Dy. CIT (International Taxation) - In the instant case the Honourable Mumbai Tribunal held that in terms of Article 11(1) of India-Cyprus DTAA, interest income in question was liable to be taxed on payment/receipt basis and not on accrual basis.

[2016] 158 ITD 1 (Mum. – Trib.); [2016] 68 taxmann.com 36 (Mum. – Trib.): Capgemini Business Services (India) Ltd. - In the instant case the Honourable Mumbai Tribunal held that branch profits tax paid in USA under Section 884 of the Internal Revenue Code of USA is not specifically excluded from DTAA, tax credit is to be allowed to assessee under the treaty.

[2016] 158 ITD 194 (Lucknow – Trib.); [2016] taxmann.com 81 (Lucknow – Trib.): State Bank of India v. Dy. CIT (TDS) - In the instant case the Honourable Lucknow Tribunal held that as per provisions of Section 10(5) of the IT Act, only that reimbursement of travel concession or assistance to an employee is exempted which was incurred for travel of individual employee or his family members to any place in India; this clause nowhere provided that even if employee travels to foreign countries, exemption would be allowed to extent of expenditure incurred to last destination in India.

Therefore, the Tribunal held that Leave Travel Concession paid by assessee to employees involving foreign travels as well would not qualify for exemption under Section 10(5) and, accordingly, assessee was liable to deduct TDS on such payment of LTC. In other words, travel cost relating to domestic sector in a foreign trip is also not eligible.

DIGEST ON RECENT DECISIONS UNDER COMMERCIAL TAX LAWS

CA Annapurna D Kabra

Case 1: S.B. Audio and Video, Gulbarga v. Additional Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, Zone -I, Bangalore and Others 2016(85) Kar.L.J. 181(HC)(DB).

The appellant deals in electronic goods and on receipt of notice for production of books of accounts, he had submitted the monthly VAT returns and other required information. On inspection of Monthly Returns by the Assessing Authority, it was concluded that the appellant had claimed exemption towards discounts granted to its customers after the issuance of tax invoice which was against the provisions of Rule 3(2)(c) of the KVAT Act, 2003 and had passed an order disallowing such discount and levied tax and penalty amounting to Rs. 45,128. Being aggrieved, the appellant had filed an appeal before the First Appellate Authority.

The appellate authority has contended that the appellant is allowed to give further he discounts after the issuance of a tax invoice, only if such discounts are either trade discounts or pertain to the terms and conditions of any contract entered into with their customers. Such discounts are therefore, permissible by way of issuing a credit or a debit note. The onus of proving that the discount was allowed as per the provisions of the Rules and Act, is on the appellant. As per the proceeding carried out, it did not reveal whether the assessee had produced the relevant tax invoices, and debit and credit notes before the authority for the purpose of assessment, in order to prove the said fact.

Also, it has been contended by the appellant that the appellate authority must have a detailed discussion on all the factual and material aspects of the case, before arriving at any conclusion. The records do not reveal as to what documents were submitted before the appellate authority and what documents were inspected by the authority for the purpose of assessment. The Honorable court decided to remand the case back to the assessing authority and directed the appellant to furnish all the required details, using which, the entire matter was to be reconsidered by the Assessing authority.

Case 2: Rodeo Drive Luxury Products Private Limited, Bangalore v. State of Karnataka. 2016(85) Kar. L.J. 124(Tri.)(DB)

The appellant deals in high end wrist watches and pens. He had dispatched some wrist watches for an exhibition to be held in Bellary. On inspection, the inspection authority had found that there was a stock difference amounting to Rs. 5,62,892/-, and apart from that, he had realized that at the exhibition, the appellant had made a sale of Rs. 26,80,000/- which had been arrived at by taking the difference between the stock that was sent for the exhibition less the goods that returned. Hence, the First Appellate authority had treated such stock difference and untallied turnovers relating to the exhibition and accordingly levied tax and penalty. Having failed before the First appellate authority, the appellant pleaded before the tribunal.

The appellant has contended that the First Appellate Authority had considered the matters only on the basis of the report as submitted by the Commercial tax officer, without making any independent analysis.

It was also stated by the appellant that he had transported the goods to Bellary for the purpose of the exhibition, amounting to Rs. 3,42,04,775/- and though some of the goods were intended for sale but due to their delicate nature,, they could not be transported to Bellary, as the business promises had been burgled on 18th June, 2010. While the burglary issue has been answered by the First Appellate Authority, he has ignored to stock difference of Rs. 5,62,892/-, when there were untallied sales of Rs. 26,80,000/- on account of the exhibition sales.

The appellant has submitted the stock inventory attached to the e-Sugam of the goods transported to Bellary and also when they were returned. However, only the quantity and the brand name of the goods were mentioned, without disclosing the model reference numbers and the value of each item. The matter has been remanded back to the Assessing authority for fresh consideration, once the appellant submits all the required facts.

Case 3: Rama Kamath and Company, GHS Road, Mangalore v. State of Karnataka 2016(85) Kar. L.J. 190 (Tri.) (DB).

The appellant is engaged in the execution of civil works contract. In the years 2010-2011 & 2011-2012, the appellant has effected interstate purchases against C Form declaration, mentioning that the said goods were purchased for the purpose of resale, but in fact, were used in the construction purpose, therefore, there were liable to a penalty u/s 10—A of the Act. Against this, the appellant had replied, stating that the goods were machinery purchased against C form declarations which were for use and were in fact used for construction purpose. Against this, the authority has issued another notice stating that the goods purchased were tippers, tipper chassis and truck chassis, used mainly for the purpose of transporting goods and cannot be used as machinery. Hence, the goods do not fall under Section 8(3) of the Central Act and proposed to levy penalty under both Section 8(3) and 10-A.

The appellant contends that as per the CST Registration Certificate issued by the LVO, it is authorized to purchase of machinery and parts required for use in the execution of the works contract. Accordingly, the appellant purchased machinery connected to RMC, which were in fact, authorized goods. Though the above goods do not have a registration under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, they are essentially required for execution of construction of roads, in which the appellant deals in.

He has also stated that while issuance of C forms, it mentioned at the bottom of the form as against the purpose of use as 'resale' instead of 'use in execution of works contract' since such option was not available and since it was of the view that execution of works contract amounts to a deemed sale, hence, the option of 'resale' was found most relevant amongst the others. Solely for this mere irregularity, penalty u/s 10-A cannot be levied.

The appellate authority had stated that while the above goods were purchased, such type of goods were not mentioned in the CST Registration certificate of the dealer and hence, the appellant is not authorized to purchase such goods.

On the above grounds, the appeals of the appellant was completely allowed and the matter was remanded back to the assessing authority for fresh consideration to issue a fresh notice indicating the goods covered and not covered in the certificate of registration at the time of purchase.

Case 4: Jones Lan Lasalle Property Consultant India (Private) Limited, Bangalore vs. State Of Karnataka – 2016(84) Kar. L.J. 489 (HC) (DB).

The appellant has filed monthly returns under the Karnataka Value Added Tax Act, 2003, beyond the period of 6 months showing an additional tax liability of Rs. 5,02,09,566/-. The Deputy commissioner passed a re-assessment order under section 39(2) of the Act, which was later taken to the Additional Commissioner for revision. The additional commissioner issued a notice pertaining to the circular dated 7-7-2008 vide No. VAT/CR-31/2008-09. According to the interpretation of the circular made by the revisional authority, it claimed that credit of input tax credit cannot be taken to settle the additional tax liability. The question was whether the additional tax liability could be settled after considering the credit of input tax.

The appellant contends that whenever the matter pertains to payment of additional tax liability, it would always mean the credit or set off to be made of the tax already paid and the consequential amount of tax needs to be paid by way of additional tax liability. If the credit or adjustment is to be given to the amount of tax already paid, there is no reason why the credit of input tax should not be adjusted against the additional tax liability and thereafter to arrive at the additional net tax liability.

It was held that the Revisional authority had not properly interpreted the circular. Hence, the order of Revisional authority was quashed and the appellant was allowed the credit of input tax while estimating the amount of additional net tax liability.

Case 5: Kennametal India Limited, Bengaluru vs. The Additional Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, Zone -3, Bengaluru 2016(84) Kar. L.J. 507 (HC) (DB).

The appellant is engaged in manufacturing and trading of cutting tools. On the discount claimed on the total turnover by the appellant, the Assessing Authority has issued a notice and later, reassessment orders, denying such claim of discount and levy of penalty and interest and had issued a demand notice in Form 180, against which he went for an appeal before the First Appellate Authority. After having received further orders from the Additional Commissioner (Revisional Authority), the appellant appealed before the Tribunal.

The appellant has contended that the Revisional authority has relied only on the judgment in the case of Southern Motors, Bangalore vs. State of Karnataka and has passed orders without considering the contentions raised by the Assessee.

The assessee states that the case of Southern Motors deals with the Karnataka VAT Act and rules and not with the provisions of the Central Sales Tax rules and therefore, the judgment taken by the Revisional authority is not applicable while deciding on the issues under the provisions of the Central Sales Tax Act. The contentions of the appellant have been allowed and the orders of the Assessing Authority have been remanded back for fresh consideration, taking into regard, the provisions of the Central Sales Tax Act.

Case 6: Shri Balaji Trading v. State of Karnataka 2016(85) Kar. L.J. 155(Tri.) (DB)

The appellant is engaged in the activity of Iron and steel. On inspection, the inspecting authority had revealed that the appellant has been purchasing goods from outside the state and sold them in Karnataka but he has disclosed the same as a local purchase, thereby, claiming input tax credit. It has been further ascertained that most of the dealers from whom the appellant has been purchasing goods, are either non-existent or are involved in bill trading. Hence, the assessing authority has passed protective assessments, levying penalty and interest.

The appellant has contended that without the prior permission of the Additional Commissioner or Joint Commissioner, the inspection authority has passed protective assessments, without following the statutory provisions. Against this, the inspection authority stated Section 38(5) of the Act which states that 'the prescribed authority on any evidence obtained showing a liability of tax coming to its notice may with the previous permission of his Joint Commissioner or Additional Commissioner issue protective assessment....'. The appellant further contends that the Inspection authority failed to cause cross-verification of the transactions with the selling dealers, before passing the orders of protective assessments.

It has been stated by the First Appellate Authority that the dealers from whom, the appellant has purchased goods, have failed to deposit the tax on the sales made to the appellant, or failed to deliver the goods to the extent, the tax invoice was issued to the appellant, thereby, causing large amounts of tax evasion.

Considering the facts as stated by the First Appellate Authority and Inspection authority, the appeals filed by the appellant were completely dismissed and the orders of the Authorities were upheld. ■

Case Laws

Whether Service Tax is payable on Operating Lease?

Delhi HC has granted stay of service tax on operating lease of vehicles. The petitioner had challenged the levy of service tax on the ground that aforesaid activity was amenable to VAT under Delhi VAT Act, 04.

ALD Automotive Pvt Ltd V. UOI, 2016 (42) STR 952 (Del)

Note: Aforesaid decision refers to only admission of writ petition before the HC and is not the final decision.

Right to use goods is a deemed sale and liable to VAT.

A per S. 66E(f), transfer of goods by way of hiring, leasing, licensing or in any such manner without transfer of right to use has been declared as a service. Prior to declared service, aforesaid activity was taxable under tangible supply of goods service.

Are Service Tax provisions declared as ultra vires, ultra vires only with respect to the appellant or for all the service tax assesseees?

The Gujarat HC in Sports Club of Gujarat Ltd V. UOI, 2013 (31) STR 645 (Guj) had declared S. 65(25a) r/w 65(105)(zzze) i.e. services rendered by a club to its members as ultra vires and beyond legislative competence of the parliament on the ground of mutuality.

The revenue contended that aforesaid decision was applicable only qua petitioner (i.e. Sport Club of Gujarat Ltd). The HC summarily rejected the revenue's contention and held that there was no concept of provisions declared as ultra vires becoming applicable in personam (i.e. appellant) only. HC held aforesaid provisions were made ultra vires to the Act i.e. levy of service tax in respect of club to its members.

CCE V. Surat Tennis Club., 2016 (42) STR 821 (Guj)

Whether sale of SIM cards is leviable to sales tax or service tax? Can VAT be adjusted towards ST demand?

The HC held that sale of SIM Card is for activation of telecom services and hence leviable to service tax and not VAT. HC relied on BSNL V. UOI, 2006 (2) STR 161 (SC), in support of its decision.

HC further held that VAT department had collected tax without authority of law. That though VAT provisions did not provide for refund of VAT collected from customers, when VAT was not leviable, collection thereof was unconstitutional. That Courts could not perpetuate unconstitutional levy, collection and retention of taxes.

The HC directed the State Government (SG) to transfer the VAT amount to the Central Government (CG) for adjustment towards Service Tax demand by CG, when the SG contended that refund of VAT would amount to unjust enrichment, since taxes were collected from customers.

Idea Cellular Ltd V. UOI, 2016 (42) STR 823 (P&H)

Whether value of rubber is includable in the gross amount in case of retreading of tyres?

The Tribunal relied on Safety Retreading Company Pvt Ltd V. CCE, 2012 (26) STR 225 (T) and held that benefit of deduction of cost of raw materials consumed in providing the service was not available.

Tribunal held that concept of deemed sale of goods applicable only under works contract and not in the aforesaid case, liable under maintenance and repair service.

Tribunal however held that extended period of limitation was not invocable on account of difference in opinion between the two members on the bench.

CCE V. Tyresoles India Pvt Ltd., 2016 (42) STR 861 (T)

Note: In Safety Retreading Company Pvt Ltd case, the Tribunal had held that mere fact of voluntary payment of VAT @ 1% on apportioned value of goods cannot be considered as evidencing sale of goods.

Note: Rule 3(2)(m) of KVAT Rules, 05 specifically states Tyre re-treading as works contract and mentions the labour component to be 40%.

In the opinion of the author, when VAT law treats retreading of tyre as works contract, payment of tax at whatever rate, would evidence the fact that the transaction is in the nature of a deemed sale – works contract.

Once sales tax law treats a transaction as works contract, it is not open for the service tax law to treat the same as pure service.

Consequently the goods have to be treated as sold during the course of provision of service and cannot be treated as consumed for providing the output service.

What is the period for computing interest in case of delay in payment of refund?

The petitioner company had filed a refund claim on 24.1.05. While the refund was rejected by Adjudicating Authority, it was allowed by Commissioner (Appeals) on 3.6.08, but with a direction that refund amount be credit to Consumer Welfare Fund (CWF) (and not granted to petitioner) on the ground of unjust enrichment. On appeal, the Tribunal on 6.11.09 held that refund was to be granted to petitioner and not transferred to CWF.

The department granted refund vide order dt.10.3.10 and after another round of litigation granted interest from 24.4.05 (3m from application date) to 3.6.08 but refused interest from 3.6.08 till 10.3.10 on the ground that refund had been transferred to CWF due Commissioner (Appeal)'s order.

The HC held that refund was payable from 3.6.08 till 10.3.10. HC held that there was no statutory provision u/s 11BB of CEA, 44 made applicable to FA, 94, which held that interest would not be payable if refund amount credited to CWF, which was subsequently ordered to be refunded to assessee.

Purnima Advertising Agency V. UOI, 2016 (42) STR 785 (Guj)

Whether desilting of river is liable to service tax? Can suppression be attributed in the aforesaid case?

The Tribunal held that desilting of river would be liable to tax under Dredging Service. Tribunal relied on Reliance Michigan (JV) V. CCE, 2014 (35) STR 620 (T) in support of its decision.

Tribunal held that penalty cannot be invoked on the basis of suppression, misrepresentation, since the work of desilting of river was in public domain as contract awarded by Maharashtra Government.

The Tribunal held this was a case of mis-interpretation of and set aside penalty u/s 76 and 78 by invoking section 80.

R.P. Shah V. CCE, 2016 (42) STR 839 (T)

Note: S. 80 has been rescinded from FA, 94 wef 14.5.15.

Whether services provided for marketing information can be treated as 'sales promotion' and claimed as input service?

The assessee had availed input service on commission paid to overseas agents for Nov 05 to March 08. Agent's activity related to providing market information, explore market, providing feedback, developing clients.

The department contended that services were utilised for sale of goods and not in relation to manufacture and clearance of goods and hence not an input service.

Tribunal held that definition of input service was amended wef 3.2.16 by way of inserting an explanation holding sales promotion to include service by way of sale of goods on commission basis.

Credit availed was held as valid by holding that explanation though inserted on 3.2.16 was declaratory and hence effective retrospectively (from 10.9.04).

Essar Steel India Ltd V. CCE, 2016 (42) STR 869 (T)

Whether levy of service tax on senior advocates is ultra vires?

Calcutta HC prima facie held that Senior Advocates unreasonably prejudiced.

Writ Petition was admitted for further deliberations.

Bar Association, Calcutta HC V. UOI, 2016 (42) STR 955 (Cal)

Whether providing buses on hire to APSRC, to be run on stage carriage basis liable to service tax?

Appellant had supplied his buses on hire to APSRTC, for which consideration was paid on per/km basis. The Appellant had to operate the busses on the allotted routes. APSRTC had the right to collect fare charges from the passengers.

Tribunal held that providing bus on hire liable to service tax under Rent a cab service wef 1.6.07. Tribunal held that rent a cab under FA, 94 had to be read independent of rent-a-cab scheme under Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 (since scheme under MVA, 88 applicable only to motor cab and motor cycles and not busses).

Tribunal held amended provision of rent a cab under FA, 94 clearly indicated that legislature had no intention to apply provision of MVA, 88 to FA, 94 and that chargeability of service tax was independent of the provision of MVA, 98.

Tribunal held that service tax was payable for the extended period of limitation since CBEC had issued clarificatory circular immediately after amendment in 2007. Hence there was no bonafide belief for non-payment of service tax.

Tribunal however completely waived penalty (though upholding invocation of extended period to collect tax) on the ground of reasonable cause u/s 80.

UNDERSTANDING - PRINCIPAL PURPOSE TEST IN THE LIGHT OF BEPS ACTION PLAN - 6

CA Sachin Kumar B.P and CA Omar Abdullah S.M

Introduction

Double Taxation Avoidance Agreements (DTAA's) are entered into, to promote cross-border investment and facilitate free flow of trade in goods and services. However, with a vast network of treaties available, treaty shopping by Multi-National Enterprises (MNE's) has become a prevalent theme. One of the controls incorporated in a tax treaty to check treaty shopping is the principle purpose test. In case of tax treaties entered into by India, the principle purpose test is incorporated in the Limitation-of-Benefits Article. The recently amended India – Mauritius Treaty includes a newly inserted Limitation-of-Benefits Article which contains a restricted principle purpose test clause. The General Anti-Avoidance Rules (GAAR) contained in Chapter X – A of the Income-tax Act, 1961, effective from assessment year 2018-19 also contain the principle purpose test to check unethical tax avoidance schemes.

To check the growing menace of unethical tax avoidance owing to gaps in tax treaties, the OECD along with the G-20 nations has undertaken the Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) project. The BEPS project is designed on three key pillars being coherence, substance and transparency. The Final BEPS Project Report released on October 2015 contains 15 Action Plans on the basis of the three pillars which has been endorsed by India as well. Action Plan – 6 of the BEPS Project on Preventing the Granting of Treaty Benefits in Inappropriate Cases focuses on the Principle Purpose Test in a comprehensive manner. In this Article the author will be discussing the Principle Purpose Test in light of the BEPS Action – 6.

Principle Purpose Test & Action -6 of the BEPS Project

The Action – 6 of the BEPS Project contains an overhauled set of anti-abuse rules to prevent treaty shopping and as part of these overhauled rules, the principle purpose test has been discussed comprehensively. Action – 6 of the BEPS Project has recommended a new Limitation of Benefits (LOB) Article containing 8 Clauses and this article includes the Principle Purpose Test in paragraph 7 of the recommended LOB Article. The Principle Purpose Test clause contained in Action Plan – 6 is as follows:

Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Convention, a benefit under this Convention shall not be granted in respect of an item of income or capital if it is reasonable to conclude, having regard to all relevant facts and circumstances, that obtaining that benefit was one of the principal purposes of any arrangement or transaction that resulted directly or indirectly in that benefit, unless it is established that granting that benefit in these circumstances would be in accordance with the object and purpose of the relevant provisions of this Convention.

The provisions of the Principle Purpose Test paragraph above have the effect of denying a benefit under a tax convention where one of the principal purposes of an arrangement or transaction that has been entered into is to obtain a benefit under the convention. Where this is the case, however, the last part of the paragraph allows the person to whom the benefit would otherwise be denied the possibility of establishing that obtaining the benefit in these circumstances would be in accordance with the object and purpose of the relevant provisions of this Convention.

The overhauled L-o-B Article contained in Action Plan – 6 contains specific anti-abuse rules in addition to the principle purpose test. The Principle Purpose Test paragraph (Paragraph -7) in Action Plan – 6 supplements and does not restrict in any way the scope or application of the provisions of paragraphs 1 to 6 (the limitation-on-benefits rule/specific anti-abuse rules): and as per the commentary in Action Plan – 6, a benefit that is denied in accordance with paragraphs 1-6 is not a “benefit under the Convention” that paragraph 7 would also deny.

The provisions of Principle Purpose Test paragraph establish that a Contracting State may deny the benefits of a tax convention where it is reasonable to conclude, having considered all the relevant facts and circumstances, that one of the principal purposes of an arrangement or transaction was for a benefit under a tax treaty to be obtained. The provision is intended to ensure that tax conventions apply in accordance with the purpose for which they were entered into, i.e. to provide benefits in respect of bona fide exchanges of goods and services, and movements of capital and persons as opposed to arrangements whose principal objective is to secure a more favourable tax treatment.

As per Action Plan -6, the term “benefit” used in the Principle Purpose Test clause includes all limitations (e.g. a tax reduction, exemption, deferral or refund) on taxation imposed on the State of source under Articles 6 through 22 of the Convention, the relief from double taxation provided by Article 23, and the protection afforded to residents and nationals of a Contracting State under Article 24 or any other similar limitations. This includes, for example, limitations on the taxing rights of a Contracting State in respect of dividends, interest or royalties arising in that State, and paid to a resident of the other State (who is the beneficial owner) under Article 10, 11 or 12. It also includes limitations on the taxing rights of a Contracting State over a capital gain derived from the alienation of movable property located in that State by a resident of the other State under Article 13. When a tax convention includes other limitations (such as a tax sparing provision), the provisions of this Article also apply to that benefit.

The phrase “that resulted directly or indirectly in that benefit” is deliberately broad and is intended to include situations where the person who claims the application of the benefits under a tax treaty may do so with respect to a transaction that is not the one that was undertaken for one of the principal purposes of obtaining that treaty benefit.

As per Action Plan -6, the terms “arrangement or transaction” used in the Principle Purpose Test clause should be interpreted broadly and include any agreement, understanding, scheme, transaction or series of transactions, whether or not they are legally enforceable. In particular, they include the creation, assignment, acquisition or transfer of the income itself, or of the property or right in respect of which the income accrues. These terms also encompass arrangements concerning the establishment, acquisition or maintenance of a person who derives the income, including the qualification of that person as a resident of one of the Contracting States, and include steps that persons may take themselves in order to establish residence. An example of an “arrangement” would be where steps are taken to ensure that meetings of the board of directors of a company are held in a different country in order to claim that the company has changed its residence. One transaction alone may result in a benefit, or it may operate in conjunction with a more elaborate series of transactions that together result in the benefit. In both cases the provisions of Principle Purpose Test paragraph may apply.

According to the commentary contained in Action Plan – 6, to determine whether or not one of the principal purposes of any person concerned with an arrangement or transaction is to obtain benefits under the Convention, it is important to undertake an objective analysis of the aims and objects of all persons involved in putting that arrangement or transaction in place or being a party to it. What are the purposes of an arrangement or transaction is a question of fact which can only be answered by considering all circumstances surrounding the arrangement or event on a case by case basis. It is not necessary to find conclusive proof of the intent of a person concerned with an arrangement or transaction, but it must be reasonable to conclude, after an objective analysis of the relevant facts and circumstances, that one of the principal purposes of the arrangement or transaction was to obtain the benefits of the tax convention. It should not be lightly assumed, however, that obtaining a benefit under a tax treaty was one of the principal purposes of an arrangement or transaction and merely reviewing the effects of an arrangement will not usually enable a conclusion to be drawn about its purposes. Where, however, an arrangement can only be reasonably explained by a benefit that arises under a treaty, it may be concluded that one of the principal purposes of that arrangement was to obtain the benefit. Another key factor to be noted is the reference to “one of the principal purposes” in paragraph 7 means that obtaining the benefit under a tax convention need not be the sole or dominant purpose of a particular arrangement or transaction. It is sufficient that at least one of the principal purposes was to obtain the benefit. For example, a person may sell a property for various reasons, but if before the sale, that person becomes a resident of one of the Contracting States and one of the principal purposes for doing so is to obtain a benefit under a tax convention, paragraph 7 could apply notwithstanding the fact that there may also be other principal purposes for changing the residence, such as facilitating the sale of the property or the re-investment of the proceeds of the alienation.

Essentially as per Action Plan – 6 a purpose will not be a principal purpose when it is reasonable to conclude, having regard to all relevant facts and circumstances, that obtaining the benefit was not a principal consideration and would not have justified entering into any arrangement or transaction that has, alone or together with other transactions, resulted in the benefit. In particular, where an arrangement is inextricably linked to a core commercial activity, and its form has not been driven by considerations of obtaining a benefit, it is unlikely that its principal purpose will be considered to be to obtain that benefit. Where, however, an arrangement is entered into for the purpose of obtaining similar benefits under a number of treaties, it should not be considered that obtaining benefits under other treaties will prevent obtaining one benefit under one treaty from being considered a principal purpose for that arrangement.

The following examples provide an illustration as to how the Principle Purpose Test contained in Action Plan – 6 would operate in different scenarios:

Example A: X Co, a company resident of State X, owns shares of Y Co, a company listed on the stock exchange of State Y. State X does not have a tax convention with State Y and, therefore, any dividend paid by YCo to XCo is subject to a withholding tax on dividends of 25 per cent in accordance with the domestic law of State Y. Under the State Z-State Y tax convention, however, there is no withholding tax on dividends paid by a company resident of a Contracting State and beneficially owned by a company resident of the other State. YCo enters into an agreement with ZCo, an independent financial institution resident of State Z, pursuant to which YCo assigns to ZCo the right to the payment of dividends that have been declared but have not yet been paid by XCo.

In this example, in the absence of other facts and circumstances showing otherwise, it would be reasonable to conclude that one of the principal purposes for the arrangement under which YCo assigned the right to the payment of dividends to ZCo was for ZCo to obtain the benefit of the exemption from source taxation of dividends provided for by the State Z - State Y tax convention and it would be contrary to the object and purpose of the tax convention to grant the benefit of that exemption under this treaty-shopping arrangement.

Example B: XCo, a company resident of State X, is in the business of producing electronic devices and its business is expanding rapidly. It is now considering establishing a manufacturing plant in a developing country in order to benefit from lower manufacturing costs. After a preliminary review, possible locations in three different countries are identified. All three countries provide similar economic and political environments. After considering the fact that State Y is the only one of these countries with which State X has a tax convention, the decision is made to build the plant in that State.

In this example, whilst the decision to invest in State Y is taken in the light of the benefits provided by the State X-State Y tax convention, it is clear that the principal purposes for making that investment and building the plant are related to the expansion of XCo's business and the lower manufacturing costs of that country. In this example, it cannot reasonably be considered that one of the principal purposes for building the plant is to obtain treaty benefits. In addition, given that a general objective of tax conventions is to encourage cross-border investment, obtaining the benefits of the State X-State Y convention for the investment in the plant built in State Y is in accordance with the object and purpose of the provisions of that convention.

Conclusion

As a tax professional one can clearly note that, tax policy is increasingly laying emphasis on substance rather than form, the Principle Purpose Test contained in Action Plan – 6 of the BEPS Project is also a step in the same direction of emphasis over substance. Finance Act – 2015 postponed the application of the GAAR provisions contained in Chapter X-A of the Income-tax Act, 1961, to AY 2018-19 onwards owing to the then ongoing BEPS Project. Now that the Final Reports of the BEPS project have been released, we can see there is greater clarity with regard to the Principle Purpose Test in case of tax treaties. Action Plan – 15 of the BEPS Project is seeking for a multi-lateral instrument which will amend all the treaties of the member countries of the BEPS Project and India is on the panel trying to achieve the same. One of the Action points contained in Action Plan – 15 is amending the treaties as per Action Plan – 6. Overall, the Principle Purpose Test gives the revenue authorities wide discretion and authority which could cast an excessive tax and compliance burden on assesses. As tax professionals it has become all the more pertinent to review the substance of international arrangements while advising clients.
